

(1) Provision of legal advice and counseling on the requirements of and compliance with the laws of any jurisdiction within the United States, provided that such advice and counseling are not provided to facilitate transactions in violation of this part;

(2) Representation of persons when named as defendants in or otherwise made parties to domestic U.S. legal, arbitration, or administrative proceedings;

(3) Initiation and conduct of domestic U.S. legal, arbitration, or administrative proceedings in defense of property interests subject to U.S. jurisdiction;

(4) Representation of persons before any federal or state agency with respect to the imposition, administration, or enforcement of U.S. sanctions against such persons; and

(5) Provision of legal services in any other context in which prevailing U.S. law requires access to legal counsel at public expense.

(b) The provision of any other legal services to persons whose property or interests in property are blocked pursuant to § 537.201(a), not otherwise authorized in this part, requires the issuance of a specific license.

(c) Entry into a settlement agreement affecting property or interests in property or the enforcement of any lien, judgment, arbitral award, decree, or other order through execution, garnishment, or other judicial process purporting to transfer or otherwise alter or affect property or interests in property blocked pursuant to § 537.201(a) is prohibited except to the extent otherwise provided by law or unless specifically licensed in accordance with § 537.207(e).

§ 537.508 Authorization of emergency medical services.

The provision of nonscheduled emergency medical services in the United States to persons whose property or interests in property are blocked pursuant to § 537.201(a) is authorized, provided that all receipt of payment for such services must be specifically licensed.

§ 537.509 Official activities of the U.S. Government and certain international organizations.

All transactions and activities otherwise prohibited by this part that are for the conduct of the official business of the United States Government, the United Nations, the World Bank, or the International Monetary Fund are authorized. This section does not authorize any importation into the United States of any article that is a product of Burma.

§ 537.510 Third-country diplomatic and consular funds transfers.

All transactions that are related to funds transfers otherwise prohibited by §§ 537.201 and 537.202 and that are for the conduct of diplomatic or consular activities of third-country diplomatic or consular missions in Burma are authorized.

§ 537.511 Importation of accompanied baggage and household effects of U.S. diplomatic and consular officials.

U.S. diplomatic or consular officials entering the United States directly or indirectly from Burma are authorized to engage in all transactions incident to the importation into the United States of products of Burma as accompanied baggage or household effects, provided that such products are not intended for any other person or for sale and are not otherwise prohibited from importation under applicable United States laws.

§ 537.512 Importation for official or personal use by foreign diplomatic and consular officials.

All transactions incident to the importation into the United States of any article that is a product of Burma that is destined for official or personal use by personnel employed by a diplomatic mission or consulate in the United States are authorized, provided that such article is not intended for any other person or for sale and is not otherwise prohibited from importation under applicable United States laws.
